

CONCERIA SUPERIOR DOWN THE ROAD FROM CASTELLO SFORZESCO

A 100% recycled aluminum installation structure characterizes Conceria Superior's first workshop in Milan, located in 3 Via Quintino Sella. Housed in a historic building just down the road from Castello Sforzesco, the workshop was designed by the international firm Aquilalberg Architects and exhibits the brand's high-quality leather collections. The company, founded in 1962, operates in the luxury leather for high fashion sector and is headquartered in Santa Croce sull'Arno, near Florence.
